

Presbyterian Home for Children

Second Century of Caring Campaign

Grant Us This Day

The Gannett Foundation came through with a grant for $2,000 toward the Ray Campbell Independent Living Village through the Asheville Citizen-Times. The Asheville newspaper is not only helping to support the campaign financially, but has also provided wonderful coverage of the program at PHFC.

The Home received a $50,000 gift from Fairview Presbyterian Church in Lenoir, NC. We are thrilled to see continued support from the churches of the Presbytery of WNC, with whom the Home has had a 104-year long relationship.

Charis Foundation, Inc., in Nashville, Tenn., stepped forward with a gift of $25,000 over two years in support of the Ray Campbell Independent Living Village.

The Home received an additional $10,000 from the Eckerd Family Foundation to be used to implement an in-house scholarship program that will allow PHFC youth to pursue their dreams.

Please keep us in your prayers as we continue to reach out to local, regional and national partners.

Outreach Efforts

WNC Western North Carolina are inviting PHFC to come in to do Moments for Mission on Sunday mornings and to give presentations at Wednesday evening dinners. If your church would like a speaker to visit, call Sarah Thomas at 828-686-3451 x31. Here are a few events currently scheduled:

- Sept. 19 - Bryson City Presbyterian Fish Fry
- Sept. 23 - United Presbyterian Moment for Mission
- Sept. 29 - Presbyterian Women meeting at PHFC
- Sept. 29 - YLT to Marshall Presbyterian Church
- Oct. 7 - Lowell Presbyterian Moment for Mission
